Your visit summary

AI AT 70 · HEALTH FOR ALL AGES

Patient: Wei Chen Visit date: October 31, 2026

Your visit

You came in because your cough and breathing have been getting worse for 1 week. The doctor thinks you have a flare-up of your lung disease (COPD) and osteoarthritis of the knees. Osteoarthritis is a type of joint inflammation that only affects the joints.

Your medicines

Breathing medicine (Tiotropium)

➜ Keep using it (18 mcg) each day.

Breathing medicine (Albuterol)

➜ Use 2 puffs every 4 to 6 hours as needed for trouble breathing.

Steroid medicine (Prednisone) New

➜ Take 1 pill (40 mg) each day for 5 days.

What to do next

- You will get a chest x-ray today.
- Go to your follow-up visit in 1 week with Dr. Lee.
- Go to the emergency room or call 911 if your lips turn blue or you have trouble breathing when you rest.
